NARRATIVE:

Sanchez, a documented 18th Street gang member, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 18. He has been convicted of carjacking, multiple felon in possession of a firearm, carrying a loaded firearm in public, prisoner in possession of a weapon, multiple domestic violence, exhibiting a deadly weapon, false identification, and fugitive from justice. Sanchez has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a three (3) year term for carjacking. Sanchez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 22, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Sanchez absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Sanchez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by ex-felon falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
